Los Angeles, CA (PRWeb) January 21, 2009 -- ShowbizLTD announced their 2009 listing of legitimate licensed music agents and music managers that do not charge fees. These licensed music agents and music managers earn 10% commission on music gigs they book musicians, singers and songwriters after they get paid for the job.

'American Idol is not the only way to make it in the music industry. Musicians should never pay a music agent or music manager any money in advance ever. If a music agent, music booking agency or music management company asks for money up front, they are not a licensed music company or legitimate talent agent and you are being ripped off. Plain and simple! Musicians, singers and songwriters will never be asked to pay anything by any of the music industry contacts on the list at http://showbizltd.com/sbl\_pages/music\_talent.php. Guaranteed.'
